

making something to do.

The Bidford Fire laddies are making elaborate plans for one big night sometime in the near future. They have already picked a good movie picture to be shown, which will be "The Third Alarm," played by a good cast. Watch for date and particulars, and make up your mind to spend that evening with the boys.

What about your subscription?