

ious lunch was served.

The Binford Fire department met with a representative of the Sterling Fire Siren company last week and decided to purchase an electric fire alarm to replace the one which was sent here on approval by the same company. The new one is a double-horn affair instead of single horn and is recommended very highly.

Dr. E. F. Ringler has decided to