On Tuesday, the twenty-first of August, at Fort Snelling, there was held a shooting contest. Alvin Shaw and Robert Truscott received the award of "Marksmen," having attained a score of over 140 points in 20 shots at slow fire and 20 shots at rapid fire. On Wednesday, the twenty-second, all the boys at Fort Snelling went to the ball game at Minneapolis. On Monday the twenty-seventh, the boys participated in a big parade through the principal streets of St. Paul. Next day a great military tournament and sham battle was held at the Fort, to which all relatives and friends of the boys received invitations from the commandant.
