

A home talent play, "The Deacon of Entangled," a three act comedy, was presented in Binford last Friday evening to an appreciative audience. The members of the cast demonstrated their ability as performers in fine shape. The leading role, that of the deacon, was taken by Mr. Robertson, who was exceptionally good and was thoroughly enjoyed. A dance was given after the show, with music furnished by the 8-piece Dasey orchestra.