

son, north of town.

Rev. Duden, of Cooperstown, delivered an interesting address at the services held at the opera house on Sunday afternoon. The occasion was the 102nd anniversary of the I. O. O. F. lodge, and the local members attended the services in a body.

---