

ved.

The dance given by the I. O. O. F. lodge last Friday evening drew a big crowd, seventy-two tickets being sold. As usual, the Odd Fellows proved to be royal entertainers and everybody had a real good time.

Mrs. Theo. Killelson and baby, who