

the thumb.

The interior of the light plant has been undergoing some noticeable changes since Electrician Solee took charge. The old battery and office rooms have been removed from the engine room and an office room will be fitted up in the front part which was used for the feed mill. Mr. Solee

---