

with the wine.

A very large crowd attended the Christmas tree exercises held in the Lutheran church, Monday evening. The program was very good and those who took part were a credit to themselves and their instructors. After the program there was the usual distribution of gifts and the presentation of bags of candy and nuts to the little folks.