

night.

An epidemic of a mild form of the flu has been prevalent in this community for the past two weeks. No one has been seriously ill and in most cases those who have contracted the illness have not been confined to their homes for more than a week. All are taking every precaution to avoid further complications, and we look for the epidemic to run its course in a short time.