

Mothers' Day last Sunday was observed by holding appropriate exercises in the church that morning, under the auspices of the American Legion and Auxiliary. The program consisted of songs by the choir, solos by Mr. Larson and Miss Greenland, reading by Geraldine Ringlee and Evelyn Alfson and talks by Mr. Bixby and Rev. Bach. Each number was well rendered and well received. The church was filled to capacity.