

Postmaster-elect C. E. Peterson left yesterday for Fargo, where he will remain for a few days to receive instructions relative to the affairs of the postoffice. This is a new departure inaugurated by the postoffice department, and done principally for the purpose of improving the service, if possible, and to assist the new appointees in getting the right start. Mr. Peterson expects his commission in a few days.