

The cold weather has been the cause of great irregularity of the train services the past week or two. Last Saturday the passenger train did not arrive in town, from the east until half past nine in the evening.

---