

with relatives.

A genuine old time blizzard with all its fury commenced raging early Tuesday morning and is continuing with no sign of abatement. The local passenger train has been tied up and will have to be preceded by the snow plow before it can get thru.

Five tables were in play at a very