

5 team playing in this class.

6 The school board was in session
7 Tuesday evening to consider the mat-0 ter of finances for the coming school 1 term. A new law passed at the last 6 session of the legislature does not 6 permit a sufficient levy to be made 3 for our school purposes, and legal 6 advice is to be sought to learn if 7 there is any relief for our present dilemma. It is thought that a special election will be necessary. A new secretary, Francis Ringlee, was appointed to succeed Stephen Rocvig. Other matters of routine were disposed of.
