

Class of Four Given Diplomas at Monday Evening's Program

A packed house greeted the commencement exercises held in the opera house Monday evening, June 2nd, when a class of four were graduated with appropriate ceremonies. The graduates are Irvin Sharpe, Nellie Pritz, Cecil Pinkerton and Edna Lewis.

The class motto "Honor Lies at Labor's Gate," was done in the class colors, grey and silver, and prominently displayed across the front of the stage. The class flower is the pink rose. The rear and sides of club sang "In the Time of Roses." President C. C. Swain of the Teachers' College of Mayville then delivered the address of the evening, and kept the audience intensely interested throughout his discourse. Oscar Greenland presented the diplomas to the graduates of 1924, as well as to the members of the eighth grade. The orchestra played another number, after which the benediction was pronounced.

Seven pupils finished the eighth grade and received certificates. They

Cecil Pinkerton

Edna Lewis

Nellie Pritz

Irvin Sharpe

the stage was prettily decorated with green branches and colored streamers.

The opening number was the invocation given by Rev. L. M. Halling, following which Nellie Pritz gave the salutatory address. The school orchestra rendered a selection after which the valedictory address was given by Irvin Sharpe. Edna Lewis read the Class History and Prophecy, and the school glee were Clifford Shaw, Harry Norstrom, Lillian Solee, Angeline Dahl, Marie Jacobs, Thelma Peterson and Annie Tjeltweet.

Baccalaureate services were held in the Trinity Lutheran church last Sunday evening for the graduating class of 1924. Rev. L. M. Halling delivered the sermon. Special music was rendered by the Junior choir and the male chorus.