Editor-in-chief—Norma Thorn.

Last Thursday the General Science class spent their class period in the laboratory, studying a miniature steam engine. The parts were examined and the workings of it were watched.

The Vesperian Club will meet on Wednesday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock. The following program has been arranged:

Song, "North Dakota," by the club.
Reading by Norma Thorn.

Selection by orchestra.

Dramatization of The Three Bears.
Impersonation of Freshman, by Myrtle Pritz and Thelma Greenland.

Piano duet, Nellie Pritz and Evelyn Amundson.

Parliamentary drill, with Ruth Heland as chairman.

Musical reading by Vable Brodshog.
Song by the club.

A very successful meeting of the club was held last Wednesday evening.

Nellie Pritz was absent several days last week because of illness.

The boys' Physical training class spent the last two periods in playing indoor baseball. They have also been practicing vaulting.

Thursday the girls spent their Physical Education period by running and jumping. The period on Monday was spent in basket ball practice. The sides were not equally balanced due to the fact that the tallest girls were all on one side.

The high school play will be given on April 25th. Watch for the advertising.

The Later History class is now studying the World War. Our interest in history has increased since the beginning of study of the World War, possibly because we can partly remember it being close to our own times.

This is the last news report the present staff will make out. A new staff will be appointed to serve the coming month.

On Monday the Agriculture class was engaged in judging a light draft horse. The students' score varied considerably, ranging from 76 to 91 points. The correct score was 89 points. On Tuesday, the class studied another experiment—the Physical Examination of Soils.

Those having an average of 90 or above for the past month are:

The second and third grades made Pussy-willow bunnies this week. It was great fun, but hard work, for each separate pussywillow had to be pasted on in order to make a fur-coated bunny.

The children in the intermediate room are learning story plays for their reading lessons this week. This seems to work up interest among the readers and is quite a change from the ordinary reading material.

Belle Oien is back to school after several days illness.
