The class in English 6 is now preparing for a debate. The question to be debated is "Resolved that the United States shall extend the present Immigration Law." The class has been divided into affirmative and negative sides. Briefs were given on Tuesday and the debate was presented Wednesday.

The General Science class has begun the study of the Solar System. We find this a very interesting subject.

The Vesperian Club met Wednesday evening and gave the following program:

Song by club.

Original Story by Cecelia Jacobs.

Piano Solo, Ruth Helland

Original Poem, Edna Lewis.

Newspaper: Editor, Norma Thorn;

Reporters: Myrtle Brodshaug, Sidney, Bakke, Herman Asmus.

Reading by Evelyn Rorvig.

Parliamentary Drill, led by Evelyn Amundson.

Dialog: LaVerne Reid and helpers.

Comic Reading. Arthur Alm.

Song by the club.

High School pupils having an average of 90 per cent or above are: Irvin Sharpe, Arnold Goplin, Arthur Alm, Mildred Dahlin, Sidney Bakke.

Norman Thorn and Evelyn Amun-

son had an average of 85 per cent.

The Seventh and Eighth grade pupils are now daily practising spelling for the annual tournament to be held in Cooperstown. Two girls are practising for the Declamatory contest.

The children in the Intermediate room have been interested in the planning and making of May baskets this week.

The fifth and sixth grade Geography class is beginning the study of Asia.

The fourth grade pupils have dramatized the story of "The Spider and the Fly."

The third grade "B" reading class started the book called "Work that is Play." The book is filled with plays that have to be dramatized and the children are greatly benefited because they learn to express themselves naturally.

The third grade has started the study of Roman numbers and enjoy the work very much.

The primary room pupils made May baskets on Monday and learned many new verses to put into them.

Elaine Alfson and Eunice Larson were absent from school the first part of the week due to illness.
