

The Zoology class has greatly enjoyed the study of living specimens of ameba and paramoecium. Anyone interested in these little organisms is welcome to make use of the High School microscopes and the specimens which we have.

---