

School.

Several people of our town noticed the eclipse of the sun which took place Monday afternoon between two and three o'clock. It was only a partial eclipse as seen in this state and was not visible without the aid of smoked glasses. The only part of the United States in which it appeared as a total eclipse was in California.

---