

look into the reasonableness and necessity of said rates. As a result of this order by the Commission the telephone company is not allowed to enforce the rates, providing for a net rate of $24.00 a year, until the result of the hearing before the Commission is ascertained.

Auto owners who have not already