

The bases for the new equipment at the light plant have been put in. All of a week will have to elapse to allow the cement to set, before the machinery can be put in motion. However, as soon as equipment arrives it will be safe to place it in position, after which it will be necessary to send in measurements for the belt. No unnecessary delay is anticipated.

The Legion dance last Friday