

her mother.

A. W. Blasky, of McHenry, fell from the roof of the Crane-Johnson Lumber company building, Monday, a distance of fifteen feet, breaking his left wrist and three or four ribs. One rib penetrated a kidney. He was taken to a Fargo hospital Monday for medical attention.

With every $2.00 purchase bought