

Sentinel-Courier: Sheriff Tweed journeyed to McClusky last week, and placed Swen Boe under arrest, returning him here where he is lodged in the county jail awaiting trial. Boe is under arrest on the charge of deserting his family at Hannaford. Boe, it will be remembered figured in court proceedings a couple of years ago. At that time he was paroled and given the chance to support and take care of his family.