

hostess many happy returns.

Miss Donna Moore entertained a large number of young folks at a valentine party, Monday evening, between the hours of 7:30 and 10:30. Red and white, the valentine colors, were carried out in the decorations, and games and dancing were the diversions. Miss Myrtle Brodshaug was awarded a prize for the best looking animal molded from gum. Lunch was served, for which partner were selected by matching broken hearts. The guests had the best kind of a time, and unanimously voted Miss Donna a royal entertainer.

---