

laborate supper.

Game Warden H. A. Brown paid Binford a brief visit yesterday afternoon. Mr. Brown informed The Times that he had secured 20 cans of sunfish, croppies and black bass that were planted in Red Willow lake yesterday. Mr. Brown is covering much territory on official duties and is making it rather hot for game violators.