

to catch the train for Fargo.

Otto Bruns and family returned Tuesday evening from Detroit, Minnesota, where, as guests of friends, they enjoyed ten days' fishing and camping at the lakes. Mr. Bruns says they had some fine fishing while there, and has got the fever to such an extent that a trip to the lakes will be an annual event.

Binford again lost one of its fine