

518 called on friends.

Jack Burnett had the misfortune to lose his home by fire Tuesday morning. The fire started in the chimney and gained such headway before help came that it was impossible to save the building. Some of the contents were saved, however. The neighbors who arrived on the scene did some fine work in preventing the barn from burning, as it ignited several times.

---