

HANNAFORD GETS

TELEPHONE OFFICE

Dazey Commercial: The Central North Dakota Co-Operative Telephone Co. held a special stockholders meeting in Dazey last Tuesday. It is interesting to note that this was the first meeting in five years that a quorum has been in attendance. There has for some time been a difference of opinion as to the most logical place for the headquarters of the company and at the meeting the matter was discussed and a resolution to move the headquarters from Dazey to Hannaford was acted upon and carried. We understand that the change is to be made as soon as the board can make the necessary arrangements.

Another resolution, which will change the date of the annual meeting from March to June was also presented and carried.

The company has been suffering from the hard times and the stockholders present at the meeting Tuesday discussed the company's affairs at length with the result that those present paid their telephone rental in advance. In this way a substantial sum of money was raised and this cash will help the board considerably in the present crisis.
