Editor Nye, of Cooperstown, was a visitor at The Times office Tuesday. Mr. Nye states that the Sentinel-Courier Company has been notified to vacate their present location and an effort is being made to dispose of additional stock to erect a new home for the paper. Tentative plans call for a building 35 x 60 with basement, to be finished in tile and stucco. He estimates the cost to run in the neighborhood of $10,000.

Indications are that there will be
