COOPERSTOWN GETS FIRST

H. S. PLAYMAKERS BODY

The Cooperstown high school has been notified that it is the first North Dakota high school to install a chapter of the Junior Play Makers, permission to install the chapter having been granted in recognition of work accomplished by the Alpha Omega club of the high school last year. The installation was made under the auspices of the Dakota Play Makers of the University of North Dakota, which to encourage original play making and production, has adopted the policy of authorizing junior organizations which are given Indian names and aided as much as possible by the parent organization.
