

Alton Dahlia was the victim of an accident Sunday at the club. He was sitting along the side watching an indoor base ball game. The bat slipped out of a batter's hands and struck him in the forehead, cutting quite a severe gash. After being given first aid, Adolph Tuffeland hurried him into town where he was fixed up by Dr. Truscott. It was necessary to take three stitches in the wound.