

Miss Angeline Dahlin went to Cooperstown, Monday, to visit Dr. Rose. While playing base ball in the school yard the other day, she had two of her upper front teeth broken off by being struck by a thrown bat, and went to the dentist to have them replaced.