

pay the highest possible price.

Harold Ehlers and Bob Cowen left last Friday for Canada, where they intend to seek employment during the threshing season. Word from them this week is to effect that they will be home in a few days.

Nels Paulsrud has purchased the