

The Times is in receipt of a letter from Harold Ehlers, who went to Bengough, Canada, in company with Bob Cowen, expecting to work in the harvest fields. Harold states that harvesting and threshing has been greatly delayed on account of the wet weather. That part of Canada has an excellent crop, Mr. Ehlers states, but it will be Christmas before threshing is completed.