

The following article, clipped from the Pittsburg, (Penn.) Times, refers to Minor E. Ellingson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ellingson, of Sharon, and proves that he has been recognized as a coming professional ball player: "A new Bucco worked out with the team today. The young man is Minor Ellingson, shortstop and outfielder, late of the University of North Dakota. Ellingson also played in the A. E. F. The youngster was recommended to the Pittsburg Club by Homer Hildebrand, who was a Pirate pitcher years ago. He is 24 years, weighs 175 and stands 5 feet, 11 inches, and handsome."

Leaguers from all parts of Griggs