During the severe electrical storm Tuesday night, much rain fell and in the district southwest of town, considerable damage was done to the rye crop and early oats. The area covered was not a large one but in some places in its path the rye crop was a total loss and others will suffer a partial loss. The heaviest losers are Harold Nelson and Henry Olson on the Buchheit farm, E. E. Iverson, Helmer Johnson on the Boyd Knapp farm, Ed Evenson, Cornelius Watne, J. P. Finstuen, Ernest Johnson, M. D. Leiniger and L. M. Simonson.
