

them.

Finley Farmers Press: Our local Dramatic club made their trip to Binford to put on the play, "Til Saeters." On their way over, the snow storm set in, which minimized the attendance somewhat, but in spite of this circumstance, the members of the troupe in no uncertain tone spoke of the hospitality of the Binford people, proclaiming the chicken dinner the best any member of the club had ever partaken of. The treatment accorded them more than made up for the fifteen miles of snow shoveling on their return trip Saturday.