

Christmas program and basket social will be given by the Jessie school, in the Jessie hall, Thursday evening, December 22.

Farm Wanted—Want to hear from owner of a farm for sale, give lowest price, and full particulars.—

L. Jones, Box 551, Olney, Ill.

Miss Norma Craven came down from McHenry last Friday and will make her home with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. West.

A complete line of Christmas and New Year's cards and booklets are now here. Come in and look them over now.—Anderson's Pharmacy.

Julius Thorn returned home late Saturday night from Canada where he had put in some weeks threshing. He made the trip home by car.

Friends in Binford have received word that Horace Ford is visiting at the home of his folks in Fargo. Horace has been in the navy for five years and was discharged at Charlestown, S. C., on the 7th of this month. Needless to say he is glad to be at home once more.

The holiday spirit is best conveyed by the use of refined and dainty Christmas and New Years cards—a personal message in holiday attire. Order some now at Times office.

Sixteen applicants, most all from Binford and vicinity, were in Cooperstown last Saturday, and took the civil service examination for the position of rural carrier from Binford postoffice.

John Thune, Nels Thune, Eddie Dahl and Knute Norswing autoed to Jamestown Tuesday afternoon, where Mr. Thune will visit with his sister, Mrs. Alfstad, who is a patient at the hospital at that place.

ARRANGEMENTS HAVE BEEN MADE FOR A STANDING ORDER OF A CAR A WEEK OF LUCKY STRIKE LIGNITE COAL—BINFORD GRAIN CO.