

A number from this end of the county were in Cooperstown Monday, when further plans were made for the organization of the Griggs County Co-operative Land association. Another meeting is to be held Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, at the Cooperstown gymnasium to complete the organization, such as the election of directors and officers, adoption of constitution and by-laws, etc. The general public is invited to this meeting.

---