

District Court Is In Session

---

Griggs county district court convened at Cooperstown Monday, with Judge Cole presiding.

The criminal actions have occupied the time of court thus far. Chas. Loudon, who was charged with violation of the prohibition law, plead guilty and was sentenced to six months in jail and $200 fine.

In the case of the State vs. Ernest Rohlwing in which the question of removal of mortgaged property was involved, a verdict of acquittal was rendered.

The case against Frank Collins, another prohibition action, was given to the jurors late yesterday afternoon. It required but a short time to bring in a verdict of not guilty. Benjamin Tufte was the attorney for the defendant.

The state's testimony in the case against Roy Flick was nearly all in when court adjourned yesterday. Mr Tufte is the attorney for the defendant in this case also.

---