The Cooperstown Circuit Luther League will hold their annual convention the 29th and 30th of June. It will be held at a very central place—on the Sheyenne River at Fluto's Bridge, five miles east of Cooperstown. No free lodging or meals will be furnished, as previously. Every visitor must either carry his own lunch or buy it elsewhere. There will be three sessions each day, beginning at 10:30 in the morning, 2:30 in the afternoon, and 8 in the evening.
