

done.

The Griggs County Play Day at Cooperstown last Saturday was attended by a large crowd, and more would have been present had not the weather during the forenoon been so threatening. In spite of a late start all the events were pulled off as scheduled. The aeroplane stunts by Aviator Haynes were a special attraction and furnished much amusement.