

ated, so come early.

Miss Lydia Halling arrived home last Friday from Valley City, where she had attended summer school at the normal. She intends to return there shortly to resume her studies during the winter.

The little five-year-old daughter