

will be well received in Jessie.

Miss Lydia Halling has completed a course of study at the Valley City normal and arrived home Friday for the Christmas holidays, before going out to teach school. She plans on accepting a position to teach the primary grades in the Palermo consolidated school.

Thieves found their way into the