

ory of our "oldest inhabitant." The storm increased during the day and continued with the same intensity until Thursday, giving us three days storm with little or no cessation. There was no train on the branch until late Saturday evening, after the rotary had opened up the road for them.

The Rogers Citizen tells about an accident which happened to Jack Hanson of that place. Mr. Hanson will be remembered by many Binford people as the man who wrestled with Joe Alberts, the Strong Man, here a few weeks ago: "Wednesday afternoon, Jack Hanson was seriously injured when the hay rack upon which he was riding was blown off the sleigh. Two bones in one leg were broken just above the ankle, and his back was quite seriously injured. He was rushed to the hospital in Valley City, but because of the swelling in his leg and his extreme weakness no bones have been set at this writing."

Did you ever try the Dunn fountain pen? Come in and we will let you try one.—Anderson's Pharmacy.