

BODY OF HANS HOGIE ARRIVES IN THE STATES

REMAINS OF LOCAL EX-SERVICE
MAN WILL BE BURIED IN BIN-
FORD—AMERICAN LEGION TO CONDUCT FUNERAL

Relatives of Hans Hogie, who died on the battlefields of France, have been advised by the war department that his remains arrived at Hoboken, New Jersey, last Friday, and will be shipped to Binford immediately.

The Jonas A. Helland post of the American Legion is preparing to conduct the funeral. It is not definitely known when the remains will reach here, but plans are to hold the services on Sunday, Sep. 11. The Times hopes to give more particulars in our next issue.
