

vites everybody to come.

O. W. Olson and Herman Holland returned last week from Miles City, Montana, where they had been since the 4th of July. They had the pleasure of witnessing a three day round up celebration and it was a rare treat. Crops in that part of Montana through which they drove were very poor.

A big meeting of the U. S. Grange