

lemen left for home that evening.

The Times neglected to mention last week the return of Roy Iverson, from the sanitarium at Dunseith, where he has been taking treatments for the past several months. Roy has gained considerable in weight since he left Binford, and otherwise improved his health.

George White, who had been visit