

JESSIE NEWS

The Jessie Community club met on last Saturday evening at the hall in Jessie for the first time after the holidays and justice was certainly done to the evening. The program was very well rendered and everyone carried out their part to perfection. Mrs. J. W. Ressler captured the prize in the whist game while Miss Helen Ketter was awarded the booby prize. The next meeting will be held a week from Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Dahl returned from an extended wedding trip of two weeks to Wisconsin after a quiet wedding at the Ole L. Anderson home December 28th.

Misses Elva Retzlaff and Helen Ayrea were visitors here between trains, from Cooperstown, Saturday.

Miss Fredrika Behm left Saturday for Valley City after a visit with friends near Jessie.

Rudolf Trost was a Binford visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rule spent New Year's at the C. Johnson home.

The Binford High School Junior class presented their play in Jessie on Friday evening. We all had a very good laugh, and decided not to tell the truth.

Services were held in the Catholic church last Sunday.

Oyster shells at Retzlaff-Rickford, Jessie.

The club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimprich last Friday. A large number attended and all enjoyed the music.

We have some very fine ginghams in stripes and plaids at 35c per yard.—Retzlaff & Rickford.

Frank Pfeifer of Cooperstown was a Jessie visitor on Saturday of last week.

Clearance sale of shoes at Retzlaff-Rickford. Very good values at doubly reduced prices.

The Misses Elizabeth and Augustine Pfeifer of Casselton, are visiting at the Ed Zimprich home for a few weeks.

Miss Agnes Anderson returned Saturday from Alexandria, Minn., where she had been spending the Christmas holidays with her folks.