

JESSIE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Graham McCulloch entertained the community students who were home on vacation, last Thursday evening at a house party.

Fred Rickford spent the past week vacation visiting and looking after business matters in Fargo.

Miss Marle Trudeau was a Jessie passenger Saturday to spend the remaining holidays as a guest at the J. W. Ressler home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Zimprich left on Friday for Waterville, Minnesota, there to attend the funeral of Mr. Zimprich's mother.

Mrs. Ed J. Feibiger and daughters, Agnes and Mathilda, were Cooperstown passengers on Friday, returning Saturday.

James Strand, of Ellendale, was a Jessie visitor for two days last week. Everyone was glad to see Jim.

Miss Agnes Anderson is spending the holidays at her home in Alexandria, Minnesota.

Miss Bertha Rickford returned on Friday from Minneapolis, where she has been employed for almost a year.

Henry Lowe returned from Fargo Friday. He has been receiving medical aid.

Mrs. A. L. Green was a passenger to Cooperstown, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Mack went to Cooperstown, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Madson were passengers to Cooperstown, Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed J. Feibiger entertained the club at their home on Tuesday, Dec. 26.

Church was held in the Catholic church of Jessie on Dec. 31 and on Jan. 1st.

The members of the home talent play, "Nothing but the Truth," have decided to put the play on at Jessie on Friday evening, Jan. 5. This show drew a very large attendance when presented here and no doubt will be well received in Jessie.